THE THREE RS AND ANIMAL USE IN SCIENCE (RERUN)

The EU is committed to improving the welfare of animals used in science. We need our students, the young and future scientists, to help us achieve that goal. Teach about the 3R's (Replacement, Reduction, Refinement) of animal testing and get students interested in science ethics and develop their critical thinking, debating & science literacy skills.

START DATE: 13 SEPTEMBER 2021

EU CODE WEEK ONLINE BOOTCAMP

With the digitisation of all aspects of our life, there has been a surge in interest in the usage of coding and programming in the classroom. Integrating these skills in your teaching using new teaching methods doesn't have to be difficult! Regardless of the subject you teach, or your digital skills or coding expertise.
